Memo,

In compliance with the Director of Higher Education, Himachal Pradesh office letter No. EDN-HE(21)F(9)-07/2018—Drug Abuse Dated 25-06-2018.

I am directed to refer above mentioned letter and to say that as per the discussions held on various issues relating to drug abuse in the office of the Director General of Police Himachal Pradesh and as per WPIL 13/2015 & WPIL 27/2017

It has been decided that:

1. The Teachers, who come to know about their students taking drugs should share the information with parents and also guide the parents about drug de-addiction and rehabilitation process. Such issues should be discussed during PTA meetings as well as SMC meetings.
2. 104 helpline of health department to be popularized/displayed on the school notice board to assist the parents in getting their wards admitted in de-addiction centres.
3. The inspection teams will ensure to check the school bags of students surprisingly(randomly) and submit the separate reports

Therefore, you are hereby directed to comply with these instructions strictly being a court matter, failing which disciplinary action will be initiated against defaulters as warranted under rules.
