Memo,

This is in reference to the Email received from SPO, RMSA, HP Shimla office on dated 09-02-2018 at 14:22:13, on the above cited subject. In this context, it is informed that Hon'ble Prime Minister of India intends to interact with school children of Classes 6th to 12th on the theme of stress management during examination, on 16-02-2018. For this purpose, Ministry of HRD, Govt. of India has invited questions from all students on MyGov.in platform (<https://innovate.mygov.in/pm-interaction-with-students/>)

You are, therefore directed to motivate the students to ask questions through the above-mentioned platform as mentioned below:

1. Only students from standard 09th and above in schools may ask question.
2. The Question shall be about handling the stress in schools from studies/exam and how these can be reduced.
3. The Question should be direct and brief in not more than 100 words.

This activity needs to be completed by 11th February, 2018 positively with the assistance of IT Teachers/PGT (IP), who may assist the students in their respective schools to complete the activity as per time schedule.
